

CUNARD

Australia's Gardening Journey.

Setting sail on 01 March 2021, Cunard's inaugural gardening voyage offers guests a wonderful opportunity to indulge their love of gardening while enjoying a summer cruise on Queen Elizabeth in Australia's southern waters.

Nine leading gardening experts and well known personalities have been revealed for the first line up and will join this special seven-night voyage to share their latest knowledge and garden trends with guests during informative talks and dinners. Topics will include rose gardening, small garden design, bee-keeping, lawn maintenance and growing native plants, just to name a few.

Queen Elizabeth's entertainment program will have a green twist with guests having the opportunity to take part in a range of on board activities and hands-on workshops like gardening trivia, special craft classes and lessons in cooking from their gardens.

Visiting the popular ports of Hobart (overnight) and Melbourne- the cruise will also offer guests the option of bespoke shore tours taking in beautiful gardens in each city amongst other local activities and sight-seeing options.

QUEEN ELIZABETH Australia's Gardening Voyage 7 nights

1 - 8 Mar 2021 ♦ Q108

Fares from $1,399 pp twin share.

For more information and to view all fares,
visit cunard.com/Q108

QE | Australia's
Gardening Journey

Our Special Guests:

Graham Ross –

Perhaps Australia's best known gardener, Graham's career as a horticulturalist, radio broadcaster, television gardening presenter and author has spanned more than 50 years.

Angus Stewart –

An award winning horticulturist, Angus is renowned for his work in breeding new varieties of Australian native plants and is a regular presenter on a range of popular radio and television gardening shows.

Indira Naidoo –

One of Australia's most popular broadcasters and authors, Indira has written two books on gardening: "The Edible Balcony" and "The Edible City".

Sarah Hamilton –

Sarah is a horticulturalist who has specialised in native stingless bee keeping for more than six years.

Steve Falcioni –

A qualified horticulturalist, Steve is well known as a writer, public speaker and radio guest on gardening issues and is an advocate for organic gardening.

Jenny Dillon –

An experienced journalist who has trained in horticulture and landscape design, Jenny brings all her skills together as garden editor of Better Homes and Gardens.

Julia Zaetta –

Currently the editor-in-chief of Australia's number one home magazine Better Homes and Gardens, Julia is regarded as one of the most successful and the longest-serving editor in Australian publishing history.

Dora Papas –

The editor of Better Homes and Gardens magazine, Dora has been in the publishing industry for more than 25 years and loves to share her passion for renovating, making and decorating with like-minded people.

Elle Vernon –

A keen foodie, Elle is Food Editor at Better Homes and Gardens magazine and has more than 16 years' experience creating beautiful food.