

WHALE SHARKS & WINES OF THE WEST BY PRIVATE JET

A JOURNEY OVERVIEW

Sydney -Uluru -Ningaloo Reef -Margaret River -Port Lincoln- Coffin Bay

7 Days By Private Jet $14,900

Departing:

2 May 2021 | 6 Aug 2021

What better way to reignite our passion for travel than by taking to the skies aboard a private jet. With just 35 guests, we explore four regions in a single week – from the ancient wonders of Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park to the pristine beaches of the Ningaloo Coast. The epicurean delights of Margaret River and Port Lincoln are an added pleasure.

WITNESS MARUKU CAVE ART AT ULURU-KATA TJUTA NATIONAL PARK

Learn the stories and significance behind traditional and contemporary Anangu art and culture. Our Indigenous guide leads us in a study of Maruku, explaining the relationship between art, culture and a connection to the land.

Photo: Nicholas Kavou

ENCOUNTER MARINE MARVELS IN NINGALOO'S PRISTINE WATERS

From Exmouth, climb aboard the luxurious Windcheetah catamaran and cruise to Ningaloo Reef. Bask in the experience of snorkelling with whale sharks, manta rays, and a host of other tropical marine life.

SPOILT FOR CHOICE IN THE ICONIC MARGARET RIVER WINE REGION

Indulge your senses in Margaret River, as you sample the region's decadent morsels and gifts from the vine. At Leeuwin Estate, an exceptional dining experience awaits us in a delightfully serene setting.

SAVOUR A DINING EXPERIENCE LIKE NO OTHER IN COFFIN BAY

From our base in the country's seafood capital, we traverse the Lower Eyre Peninsula to arrive at Coffin Bay Oyster Farm. Donning a pair of waders, head out to sample the fresh fruits of the sea, suitably complemented with champagne.